Extra homework help in 2016 – no travel, no appointments

Next time your child gets stuck during homework or study, you have free access to a huge network of expert teachers and tutors, online, on-demand, with the school’s YourTutor service.

Connect to a live expert 3pm-10pm for real-time help with Maths, English, the Sciences and more, to help them make it their own best work.

Edith Cowan University and the College are providing access to YourTutor in 2016 to help with after-hours study, for confidence, support for parents and learning improvement.

Students will receive activation codes at school. After the activation codes are given out, your child’s account may be unlocked at yourtutor.com.au/start

Road Safety poem or short story competition

Blessing of the Roads at Altone Comes Alive

19 March 2016

The City of Swan invites you to write a poem or short story about road safety. The winners will be invited to attend the Blessing of the Roads function at Altone Comes Alive in March, and will be presented with a gift voucher for Ace Cinemas.

Blessing of the Roads is a state-wide community road safety campaign which aims to create a positive road safety culture in local communities.

Please note: Entries may be displayed at the Blessing of the Roads event, in local community facilities following the event, or used to help promote road safety awareness.

Rules

- All poems and short stories must be original work
- Poems should not exceed 32 lines in length
- Short stories should not exceed 250 words
- Entrant's name and age must be included with poem or short story - please also include entrant or guardian's contact phone number

Age groups

- Primary school students - Kindergarten to Year 6
- Secondary school students - Year 7 to Year 12 (youth aged under 18)

Entries can be posted to the City of Swan, 2 Midland Square, MIDLAND WA 6056. Please mark 'Attention Whitney Slater'

Alternatively, please email to Whitney.Slater@swan.wa.gov.au

The closing date is 5pm, Monday 14 March 2016.

ABSTUDY

Indigenous families and holders of Centrelink Cards

You may qualify for Abstudy which you can apply for through the Department of Human Services. Most claims can be lodged over the telephone with assistance from Centrelink staff. The ABSTUDY line is 1800 132 317.

UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER

All students doing nationally recognised training need to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). This includes students doing Vocational Education Training (VET) when they are still at school (VET for secondary students). The USI will make it easier for students to record their VET achievements and ensure that students' VET records are not lost. If your student is completing any Certificate courses, they must have a USI. A parent permission form is available at the front office, or please visit www.usi.gov.au

Student Insurance

The Department of Education does not have insurance that covers accidents or loss of property.

Please ensure that you are adequately covered.
