Extra help from us and ECU with study and homework, at home.

Our school believes in supporting students and families on both sides of the school fence. That's why from 3pm to 10pm Sunday-Friday, the best expert tutors are available online, ready for tricky or frustrating homework and study questions.

'YourTutor' is the school's after-hours, online study support service, generously provided to our students by Edith Cowan University. Students can log in as soon as they get stuck or need help during study time, and a live, friendly anonymous expert will take them through their problem step by step, using typed chat and an interactive whiteboard. Students must apply their own critical thinking, expertly guided by the professional teachers and tutors online.

ECU provides access to YourTutor to help local students and families with after-hours study, for increased confidence, aspiration to further education, and learning improvement.

Students have received 2016 activation codes* to set up their free account for this year.

Log in now at ecu.edu.au/yourtutor

**Contact the school if your child doesn't have an activation code. We have plenty of spares.*
